Ladies and Gentlemen:

May I remind you that seizing money earned by citizens, for use by the government to disperse any amount that they see fit to any citizen they decide to give it to, amounts to nothing less than Socialism.

My husband and I made many sacrifices over the years to provide for our old age and thus not be a burden to our children. We would sooner burn the money than have it distributed to those citizens who chose not to work, not to save, not to sacrifice.
